

Prof. P Venugopal Oration

The oration will be awarded to a full or associate member of any Nephrology/Urology association. The honor of the oration will be for people who have excelled in either or original Urological work, research in Urology, teaching or for outstanding experience in any particular field contribution to the progress of Urology.

The nominee for the award is decided by discussion amidst a full committee meeting. No member of the executive committee is eligible for the award while he is a member of the committee. In any year in the absence of any applicant, or with holding of the award, the interest accrued will be added to the principal amount. All work considered for the Oration should have been carried out in India only.
